

Cinderellas Billionaire Bear: A Shifter Fairy Tale

He might not know where she's from or even her real name. But that won't stop a bear shifter from finding his fated mate, especially now that he's got her lost slipper in his hand. Billionaire shifter Charming wants nothing more than to find his mate and settle down to start a family. So when he sees the curvy woman he's fated to be with for life at his best friend's wedding, Charming wastes no time in wooing her. They dance and mate before the end of the night. But before Charming even gets the chance to reveal his paranormal secret, his mate leaves without saying goodbye. Cinderella is forbidden to go to the wedding in New York. But fate has a way of getting her there in a beautiful dress and a stunning pair of shoes. As if that isn't enough to make her feel like a fairy tale princess, Cinderella ends up dancing with the sexiest man there. Then after sharing a night of passion with him, Cinderella leaves in a hurry without even telling him her real name. It's only supposed to be a one-night stand after all. Charming wants to drop everything to go look for his mate, but the casino he owns requires his immediate attention, delaying his search for the woman he wants to bear all his future cubs. While investigating the problem at his casino, Charming discovers that the woman he's fated to is one of his employees. Now that he has found her, will Charming be able to win Cinderella's heart? Can he convince her to see him as more than just a one-night stand? And will he be able to give her the fairy tale ending she craves? This is a standalone bear shifter romance with a guaranteed HEA and NO cliffhanger.
