

Until ... the fat lady sings: An Alternative Opera Guide

Leonore wanted something that lasted longer than the short lived passion of an opera story. She really wanted to get married, but missed out on an important ingredient to do just that. A bridegroom. For her time was running out. The clock was ticking. Dynasties disappeared beneath rock, sand and sea. The sun was moving on. And the pitch-black hair on her head was due to a bottle and a tube. Therefore even if she had to creep into someones nostril, the way flies do, Leonore was determined to have her own legally wedded husband before the bell tolled the last hour of her fifty-first year. Or at least a man who would slip a ring over the manicured nails of the second finger of her left hand, with the promise of a future with her. This was her goal in life, even if she had to commit murder, steal or take another womans husband to achieve it As jy die stories van die operas ken, sal jy die verband duidelik sien. Maar jy hoef nie van operas te hou om saam te lag nie.
