

CHAMPION - Fight For Your Life

A Champion is defined as one that does battle, defeating all opponents so as to hold first place, or the Championship. Champion-Fight For Your Life describes the battles, round after round, that we face in this life. Stamina, endurance, understanding and faith are huge in our development and training to succeed, we are never alone! In the Championship fights of old, like us today, there is no round limitation in the fight for our lives. Yet we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses cheering us on. Being saved by Gods grace does not exempt us from the devastations that life holds. Cuts & bruises, tears and pain are part of lifes battles. Just to mention a few: financial difficulties, bankruptcies, loss of a job, closing of a company, marital difficulties & divorce, unexpected deaths, terminal illness, mental disease, incarceration, drug/alcohol addictions, molestation or abuse - the tremendous struggles and challenges we face in our life. You to, by the power of a gracious, merciful and loving God, can raise your hands as He declares you Champion. It may be for you, family members or a friend - we all have or know someone that has faced some of the most devastating trials in our life. Those times we have asked God, take me now Lord, I dont want to deal with this! We face these challenges everyday and we have to make decisions on how to handle, respond and react to the situations. Its not about the circumstances of our life, its about the decisions we make in handling the difficulties. Champion-Fight For Your Life is an inspiring story with real life accounts of how people from all walks of life handle the situations and circumstances that can devastate us. From laying face down on the mat, wanting to give up after the death of my father, to getting back up and taking more heavy blows going through a public and humiliating divorce. Calling upon God for strength to fight another round, and another round and another round. Accepting that refuse to lose attitude, facing these adversities and battling every moment of every day for Championship status. Knowing greater is He who is in me, than he who is in this world. That if God is for me, who can dare stand against me. Knowing it, walking it, surviving it and living it - Champion, Fight For Your Life is on point. Whatever your position or title, or your status in this life - most of us have to face some tough times. What do you do when you just dont know what to do?It encompasses what all Champions need in their lives...this book will help each reader more clearly define Gods purpose and plans for their lives. A simple read with profound impact. For I know the plans I have for you...Stuart Welch is Senior Pastor of Bread of Life Ministries in Elk Grove, CA.
