

The Allies Pledged to an United States of Europe, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Allies Pledged to an United States of Europe, Vol. 1 Few people realize that the Allies are determined that this fearful War of Nations shall be the last vast war that is to be permitted to crucify men and women upon this planet. In some strange way this openly stated attitude of the Allies has not become generally known. Here are some of the facts. Treaty of September 5, 1914. Five weeks after the outbreak of the war the governments of Great Britain, France, and Russia declared; The British, French, and Russian Governments mutually engage not to conclude peace separately during the present war. The three governments agree that when terms of peace come to be discussed no one of the Allies will demand terms of peace without the previous agreement of each of the other Allies. Later this treaty was agreed to by Japan and Serbia. After this formal treaty was signed the Prime Ministers in Great Britain and in France declared their governments attitude. Mr. Asquith in a speech at the Guildhall, London, November 9, 1914, stated more explicitly than he had yet done the following; Attitude of the Allies.
