

The Hunt for the Nazi Gold: Secrets of the March Impromptu Code revealed

As reported by Der Spiegel, Yahoo News, ABC News, the Daily Mail and others. The Hunt for the Nazi Gold by Karl Hammer is the investigation of the secret code hidden inside the musical score of the March Impromptu by composer Gottfried Federlein. During the fall of the German Nazi empire, a large portion of Hitlers treasure went missing. Rumors about this fabled Nazi treasure of gold and diamonds have been circulating for decades. During his investigation, journalist Karl Hammer stumbled a piece of sheet music, which he believes holds the secret to the location of the hidden Nazi treasure. Unable to crack the code himself, he is asking readers around the world to aid him in this endeavor. Can you crack the code leading to a treasure of untold riches?
